It was the line most fancied by Miss Fairbanks in the poems of James Whit-comb Riley. When Ensign Timmons's ship sailed for foreign linds he bore with him an answer that made the cruise the happient he had ever known. Mss Fa banks had consented to become his bride

REGIMENT'S NEW GUNS HERE. Five Hundred of Latest Pattern

Furnished by State. Five hundred new Krag-Jorgensen rifles have just arrived at the First Regiment Armory and will be used the first time by the companies which are to take part in the drills at Fort Riley next month. Colonel St. Clair, who is to be in com-mend of the Missouri regiment during the maneuvers, says that they are of the int-est pattern and will be much admired by the men. The old guns will be returned to the State Armory at Jefferson City.
